

MOMS' NIGHT 2019

Friday, July 19th

Welcome to Camp Bluebonnet!

This year we are introducing new registration procedures to expedite your arrival. Moms' Night registration and payment will now be handled exclusively through Camp Doc and email. Please remit your payment to Camp Doc. Should you have a roommate preference or wish to be in the quiet lodge, please send your request(s) to MomsNightCB@gmail.com. Payments and roommate/lodge requests must be received no later than July 1st. A pass card with your room assignment will be given to you when your camper checks in to Camp Bluebonnet.

The evening of Moms' Night you will proceed directly to your room assignment at the Lodge before joining us at the Art Exhibit. We regret that it is not possible to process payments and room preferences after the 1st of July. We thank you in advance for adhering to the deadline thus providing the staff enough time to coordinate room assignments. Below, please find a list of recommended items to ensure a pleasant experience at Camp.

Guest Activities

Guest Activities for Moms' Night will be held in the Large Meeting Room above the Dining Hall. The art exhibit will be in Matthew Lodge. Please feel free to drop your luggage off and prepare your bed upon arrival. Don't forget to pick up your name tag and folder! Camp Bluebonnet Campers will continue to follow their schedule thus allowing mothers the opportunity to interact with each other. Remember to bring your flashlight and camera along!

Guest Speaker

This year's speaker is Lorena Yakovlev. Among her many accomplishments, she received her Master's degree in Family Education from Pan-American University, is a specialist in grief counseling and has participated in various TV and radio programs discussing marriage and family. Lorena currently runs Conexiones Emocionales, a Personal and Family Development program, based in San Antonio, TX. She is married with five children. This makes her an excellent candidate to discuss this year's topic: How to Emotionally Connect with your Daughter.

Resources

There will be an assortment of educational and spiritual books for sale (please note we can only accept cash or checks).

Holy Mass

A priest will be available for confession before Mass. Please feel free to sit next to your daughter at our concluding Mass.

Camp Attire

Specific guidelines may be found on the "What to bring" dress code portion of the web page: A day at Camp. Thank you for dressing appropriately for the celebration of Holy Mass on Saturday.

Directions

Please print the map and directions to camp found on the Camp Bluebonnet website. Bear in mind that GPS or Google Maps are unreliable as they may direct you to roads that no longer exist.

Final Words

Please contact Moms' Night Coordinator, Caroline Homan, via email: MomsNightCB@gmail.com or by text: (210) 479.1705, in advance if you would like to bring a nursing infant in order to make necessary arrangements (babies not of walking age). She will also be able to provide you with the names of campers or mothers near you for carpooling purposes.

Likewise, if your camper is no longer able to attend Camp Bluebonnet please notify Susana Castaneda at 713-478-0562 in a timely fashion in order to permit a waitlisted young lady to attend.

Please be aware that Forest Glen DOES NOT allow alcohol on the premises.
